PARTNERS

West Palm Beach Office

C. Oliver Burt, III

C. Oliver Burt, a partner in the West Palm Beach office, launched his legal career with a major Philadelphia law firm. In 1971, he began prosecuting white-collar criminal cases as an assistant U.S. attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and, two years later, was appointed chief of the Civil Division of the United States Attorney's Office. He later returned to private practice in Philadelphia, focusing primarily on antitrust, unfair competition, and securities cases. He also briefly served as a special assistant U.S. attorney.

Mr. Burt has extensive litigation experience. He was trial co-counsel for plaintiffs in Peil v. Speiser, and argued the appeal. In its landmark opinion in that case, the Third Circuit adopted the "fraud-on-the-market" presumption of reliance as the law of the Circuit. Mr. Burt also argued numerous appeals in class action cases in the Third, Eighth, and Eleventh Circuits and in the Delaware Supreme Court. He is a member of the Florida and Pennsylvania Bars and is admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States. Mr. Burt graduated from Swarthmore College in 1964 and from the Law School of the University of Pennsylvania in 1967.

Securities Litigation, Case No. 98-CV-0600-JBA (D. Conn.), an action in which the Florida State Board of Administration was the lead plaintiff. That action settled in 2000 for a $40 million cash payment and the right to appoint a new member to UCAR's Board of Directors, one of the first times such significant corporate governance relief was achieved as part of a securities class action.

A graduate of Williams College (1975) and Georgetown University Law School (1978), Mr. Pucillo worked as law clerk to two federal judges before serving as an enforcement attorney with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington. Mr. Pucillo has lectured frequently on class actions and litigation. In 1994, he became a member of the faculty of the College of Advanced Judicial Studies ("AJS"), where he taught "Managing the Complex Civil Case" to Florida circuit court judges in 1994 and in 1996. He taught again at the 2002 AJS. A member of the Academy of Florida Trial Lawyers, he has lectured for the Academy on class actions and on recent developments in commercial and business tort litigation. He served as president of the Gold Coast Chapter of the Federal Bar Association during 1989-1990, and served from 1994 to 1997 as chairman of the Palm Beach County Bar Association Federal Court Practice Committee. He also appeared on the PBS Nightly Business Report on issues relating to investor fraud.
