ATTORNEY PROFILE: AUBREY B. CALVIN

Mr. Calvin was born in Houston, Texas, on May 10, 1940. He attended Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia, and Rice University in Houston, where he earned his BA degree in 1962. Mr. Calvin obtained his LL.B. from the University of Texas School of Law in 1965.

Shortly after returning to Houston in 1965, he received a commission in the United States Air Force. He served three years on active duty as an officer in the Judge Advocate General's Division of the Air Force, with the Strategic Air Command, at Minot Air Force Base, North Dakota. At Minot, he prosecuted or defended more than one hundred General and Special Court Martial trials and Administrative Discharge Board proceedings. Based upon his trial experience, he was designated a Law Officer (military judge), by the Air Force in 1968. In addition to his trial duties, Mr. Calvin was also the counsel to the Base Contracting Officer, where he oversaw government procurement totaling more than forty million dollars, annually. Upon completion of a three-year commitment, he separated from the USAF in April, 1969, having attained the rank of Captain. He received an honorable discharge upon completion of his inactive duty commitment.

Mr. Calvin returned to Houston in 1969, to engage in the private practice of law. He has been with The Calvin Law Firm, A Professional Corporation, of which he was a founder, since 1981.

Mr. Calvin's clients are, for the most part, business people and business entities who call upon him to advise them in connection with a wide variety of legal issues, both complex and simple, which they face. For many of these clients, he has served as their outside general counsel. His clients have included banks, saving and loan associations and asset-based lenders; manufacturers of gas turbine and diesel engines, bullet trains, cement, chemicals, plastic and rubber products, copper and brass tubular and sheet products, heat exchangers, oil and gas drilling, safety and well completion equipment; pipe manufacturers and distributors; owners and operators of radio and television broadcasting stations and wireless paging systems; owners and syndicators of income producing properties (principally, apartment projects); and providers of quality assurance (including vendor surveillance) and safety inspection services. These clients range in size from small start-ups to major international corporations.

He has actively participated in some of the seminal cases of our times, including the Pemex Bribery Scandal Cases (the first major Foreign Corrupt Practices Act indictments) and Texaco vs. Pennzoil. He is currently working on several related antitrust cases including In Re Brand Name Prescription Drugs Antitrust Litigation and In Re Cardizem Antitrust Litigation.

Mr. Calvin is married to Alice R. Calvin and they have two children, Claire and Edward. He is a former President and Chairman of Young Audiences Inc. of Houston. He is also the former President and Chairman of The Netherlands-Texas Cultural Exchange Program. He is a member of St. Paul's United Methodist Church where he is a Stephen Minister. He is also active in the Wesley Ministry at The Methodist Hospital, Houston.
